Jon Mullane is an award-winning Canadian singer/songwriter/performer who has gained international acclaim and success with his music.

Having released five successful full length albums, Jon has attained several top 40 Billboard-charting radio singles in Canada, and his song My New American Girl broke into the top 40 at #32 on the Hot AC Billboard Chart in the US. His songs have been featured in numerous television shows, commercials and sporting events, including his hit single, Make You Move, on NBC promoting the Beijing Olympics.

Jon is a dynamic performer, whose songs instantly connect with audiences in any concert setting, large and small. His list of concert and television appearances throughout North America is extensive, including performing at such legendary and iconic venues as:

House of Blues, Hollywood, CA | The Viper Room, Los Angeles, CA
Wilshire Ebell Theatre, Los Angeles, CA | 12th & Porter, Nashville, TN
Gibson & Marriott Stages, NAMM, Anaheim, CA

Recent performances include:

Molson Canadian Centre, Moncton, NB (with Boney M.)
Evergreen Festival, Halifax, NS | Good Morning San Diego
Canadian Consulate's Canada 150 Celebration in Dallas, TX

In 2021 Jon released his first Holiday album Feels Like Christmas. His previous single Christmas Time, also included on the album, hit number 23 on the national Mediabase chart in Canada and has been featured in several Christmas movies, including Super Channel's Mistletoe Magic and Netflix's Christmas Inheritance. Jon launched the Feels like Christmas Tour in 2023 with guest artist Alfie Zappacosta, now positioned to become an annual Holiday event.

His touring band consists of guitar, bass, keys, and drums. Jon also performs as an acoustic duo or trio that includes his partner, singer-songwriter Suzie Jagger-Richards. Video promo here >>

In 2023, Jon released the EP California that includes the fun, feel-good single Sun in the Summertime. As his inspiring story continues to unfold, Jon Mullane defines what a real artist is . . . embracing an unbridled passion for and dedication to his music, combined with an authenticity that connects him with his fans.

"One of the best independent artists I've ever come across."

- Rob Johnson, DMX/Mood Media

"Feels Like Christmas is an out and out radio smash all across Canada...a gloriously addictive anthem that has all the makings of becoming your new future favourite Christmas classic song! Amazing."

- Paul Reynolds, My Festive Fizzy Pop

"Mullane's songs have a mass appeal, not just in North America but globally."

- Bob Mersereau, Telegraph Journal

"While catchy melodies are a prerequisite, the best vocalists, like Jon, have an emotional edge to their vocals, a connection between singer and song, that cause the tunes to really hit home."

- Odayrox
